A workshop designed exclusively for recorder players! Choose from a wide range of topics: Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque, Contemporary, and Traditional. Morning classes meet both days, afternoon classes once. Class descriptions and forms will be posted on the AEM website September 22.

Enrollment

Preference will be given to those enrolling full time. Mornings-only or afternoon classes will be offered on a space-available basis starting on October 10.

Workshop is limited to 70. Apply early!

Levels

Class levels will range from intermediate to very advanced. Applicants should play at least two sizes of instrument (S&T or A&B). It is expected that most will play both C and F fingerings and sight-read reasonably well. Baroque style recorders preferred except as noted in Class Descriptions.

Fee

$195 tuition covers all classes both days. Work study tuition $125. All music will be provided. Optional events are extra, see other side. Fully refundable before October 10.
